All,

Defendants agree with the July 27, 2020 trial date. But because Judge Donato requested that the parties provide two proposed trial dates, Defendants plan to inform the court that Defendants can begin trial on any date in July. We will also inform the court that the trial can begin no later than July 27 because of another trial in September. We will draft up a statement and send you a draft. I would like to get it on file this week. Thanks.

All,

I have now heard back from the defense group. The conflict that one defendant had in July has been resolved. So, Defendants would like to begin trial as early as possible in July because we do not know Judge Donato's August schedule and August is generally bad for a lot of people, including jurors. Can we discuss today or tomorrow to try to address Joe's conflict? Thanks.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

IN RE CAPACITORS ANTITRUST
LITIGATION

Master File No. 3:14-cv-03264-JD
MDL No. 2801

This Document Relates To:
DIRECT PURCHASER PLAINTIFFS ACTION

JOINT STATEMENT REGARDING TRIAL DATE

Pursuant to the Court's November 7, 2019 Civil Minutes (ECF No. 999), the Direct Purchaser Plaintiffs ("DPPs") and undersigned Defendants hereby submit this Joint Statement Regarding Trial Date.

I. DPPs' Statement.

Based on availability of trial counsel and witnesses, the first available date that the Class is available for trial after June 1, 2020 is July 20, 2020 with an associated pretrial conference date of June 22, 2020. In the alternative, the Class proposes a trial start date of July 27, 2020 with an associated pretrial conference date of June 25, 2020.

Regarding trial length, the Class agrees with the Court, as laid out in the November 7, 2019 Civil Minutes (ECF No. 999), that trial should not exceed three to four weeks. The Class understands that trial time will be split 50-50 between the plaintiffs and defendants.

Accordingly, the Class respectfully requests that the Court set aside three to four weeks to complete trial in this matter.

II. Defendants' Statement.

Defendants agree to, and prefer, DPPs' proposed trial date of July 20~~7~~, 2020 with~~and~~ a corresponding pretrial conference date of June 22~~5~~, 2020. In the alternative, But Defendants agree to DPPs' alternative proposed trial date of ~~are able to begin trial on any~~ date in July 27, 2020 with a corresponding pretrial conference date of June 25, 2020, ~~if the Court prefers an alternate date in July.~~ Defendants, however, respectfully request that trial begin no later than July 27, 2020 because of at least one counsel's September 2020 trial commitment in another matter.

Defendants continue to believe that trial will require at least five weeks for several reasons. First, seven Defendants remain in DPPs' case, some with unique evidence and unique issues that will need to be presented. Second, Defendants currently estimate that at least fifteen percipient witnesses and seven expert witnesses, which include joint experts as well as experts for individual Defendants, will testify live in Defendants' case. Third, many of Defendants' percipient witnesses will testify through a translator, which more than doubles the amount of time that these witnesses will be on the stand.

A number of recent, similar antitrust trials in this District – each of which involved far fewer defendants – required more or the same amount of time than what Defendants estimate for this matter. For example, the direct purchaser plaintiff trial in In re: TFT-LCD (Flat Panel) Antitrust Litigation, 07-md-01827 (N.D. Cal.) (Illston, J.), involving only one defendant, lasted six weeks. Likewise, the single-plaintiff opt-out trial in In re: TFT-LCD (Flat Panel) Antitrust Litigation, 07-md-01827 (N.D. Cal.) (Illston, J.), involving two defendants, also ran for six weeks. And trial in In re Korean Ramen Antitrust Litigation, 13-cv-4115 (N.D. Cal.) (Orrick, J.), involving only two defendants, lasted five weeks.

Accordingly, Defendants respectfully request that the Court set aside at least five weeks to complete trial in this matter.
